SENATOR GEORGE

Talks Entertainingly on the Currency Question.

DURRANT RUNS A BLUFF.

The Edmund-Tucker Law is Being Enforced in Washington, D. C., and the Result is a Big Marriage Boom in Other News Items.

CARROLLTON, Miss., May 9.—In an interview on the money question Senator George said:

"The present exhibition of a sentiment in favor of free coinage is rather a disclosure than a growth. The American people have never been satisfied with the act demonetizing silver in 1873. That act was a snap judgment taken against them by a future and disingenuous parliamentary trick."

The senator then quoted the national democratic platforms of 1884, '88 and '92, favoring the gold and silver money of the constitution. Continuing he said:

"The language was plain and unequivocal. Nor was it understood to mean, as afterwards claimed by the gold monometallists, that we should only have free coinage except by international agreement. That such argument is now made a condition of the free coinage of silver is plainly a discrimination against silver."

"The republican national conventions of 1888 and 1892 declared in equally emphatic terms for the free coinage of silver as did the populist convention of 1892."

"It will thus be seen that in every possible way the American people have from 1877 to the present time declared for remonetization."

"What has happened in the last few months is not a rapid spread of free coinage sentiment, but a general and emphatic expression of disgust at the delay in giving voice and legal force to the wishes and sentiments of the great mass of the American people and of resentment at the attempts to stifle that voice and to fasten on the people gold monometallism. I think the republican leaders will not declare for gold monometallism, or what is the same thing, against the coinage of silver unless by international agreement. I think it doubtful whether they will make any declaration either way in unequivocal terms."

"I believe the democratic national convention will be forced by the predominant sentiment of the party to declare squarely and unequivocally for independent free coinage by the United States without the co-operation of other nations."

DURRANT RUNS A BLUFF.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 9.—An evening paper publishes a statement made by Theodore Durrant to a friend, in which the man charged with the murder of two girls in Euclid church said that he would make the greatest legal battle in the history of the state, and expressed his confidence regarding the outcome, predicting that he would soon be a free man. In addition to the three attorneys already engaged for the defense, Durrant has retained a well known criminal lawyer, Geo. A. Knight, and says his case will be pushed to a speedy trial.

"There are a good many things against me," Durrant is quoted as saying, "but I fear Harry Partridge who testified that he had answered roll call for me on April 8, more than any other witness. If Partridge persists in his statement he will hang me, but my attorneys will see him and perhaps he will change his mind. I did him many a good turn and often answered roll call for him. I hope he won't continue against me." The prosecution does not understand Durrant's fear of Partridge whose testimony is corroborated. April 8 was the last day Durrant visited Minnie Williams in Alameda. Durrant denies that he offered a ring to Oppenheimer, the pawn broker, or anyone else. He says Oppenheimer is a tool of the police and has frequently given similar testimony in other cases. Durrant is studying medical books and says upon his release he will continue his course until graduation.

WASHINGTON CORAHS.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—The Edmund anti-polygamy act is being vigorously enforced in the District of Columbia.

During the past week four or five couples have been convicted of unlawful cohabitation, the court of appeals having decided that the law is applicable here as well as in Utah and other territories. The police in the different precincts are getting together a list of those living in unlawful cohabitation and there is said to be scores of them in a single police district. Some couples after being arrested were married in police courts and then released. One negro couple were married by the police judge, and the court officers and attorneys acted in the capacity respectively of best men, ushers, etc.

The determination of the officers to enforce the Edmund law has frightened the illegal cohabitators of the Washington slums, and the conse-
